LINDA S. JEVAHIRIAN

Founder and President, Linda captured the attention of the legal community in 1990 when she was the first to establish a Michigan employment agency specializing in recruiting, placing and guiding paralegals through employment and career transition. While maintaining a specialty in paralegal employment, the company offers the same services to a broad spectrum of legal professionals and support staff.

Linda's unique ability to motivate individuals and organizations to achieve their professional and human resource goals is the result of a profound entrepreneurial spirit and recognition as one of the most dedicated and accomplished recruiters and career facilitators in the employment business.
