Recruiter | Career Coach
Global Career Development Facilitator

Founder and President of Legal Search & Management, Inc., Linda captured the attention of the legal community in 1990 when she was the first to establish a Michigan search firm and employment agency specializing in recruiting, placing and guiding paralegals through employment and career transition.

While maintaining a specialty in paralegal placement, the company also offers the same services to a broad spectrum of legal professionals and support staff.

Linda's unique ability to motivate individuals and organizations to achieve their professional and human resource goals is the result of a profound entrepreneurial spirit and recognition as one of the most dedicated recruiters and career development facilitators in the employment business.
